NIE is proud to co-publish three education journals with Routledge, a member of the Taylor & Francis Group

Welcome to the second issue of NIE Journals Quarterly.

We invite you to explore a range of new articles and issues published in the suite of academic journals by the National Institute of Education, Singapore – Asia Pacific Journal of Education, Pedagogies: An International Journal and Learning: Research and Practice.

How are the journals different?

Asia Pacific Journal of Education focuses on major shifts in educational policy and governance, curriculum and pedagogy, and on the everyday lives and practices of students and teachers in the Asia-Pacific Rim.

Email: apje@nie.edu.sg

Pedagogies: An International Journal is about change and innovation in the most common, typical, and central of educational processes: teaching and learning in classrooms.

Email: pedagogies@nie.edu.sg

Learning: Research and Practice aims to be the journal of choice for learning theorisations and empirical scholarship that challenge the existing view.

Learning: Research and Practice

Volume 4, 2018 – Issue 2

Editorial: Challenging Learning Conventions

Elizabeth Koh and Hyo-Jeong So

LRP is in its 4th year of publication, and we must say, it's been quite a ride. We have launched a series of special issues that highlight emerging and important directions for learning. Additionally, we are slowly seeing manuscripts that foreground learning mechanisms that defy traditional notions of thinking and are also rigorous in their theorisations and methodology.
